

APPLICATION FORM FOR 2007 BACHELOR (HONOURS) SCHOLARSHIPS

UTS: NURSING, MIDWIFERY & HEALTH

To be considered eligible for a Bachelor (Honours) Scholarship you must meet the admission criteria for Faculty of Nursing, Midwifery and Health Bachelor (Honours) programs. In addition, no scholarship application will be considered unless an application to undertake Bachelor (Honours) with the Faculty of Nursing, Midwifery and Health at UTS has been submitted.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

You must complete all the steps outlined below (please tick):

- Step 1: Complete the Direct Application Form and Supplementary Form for Bachelor (Honours)
- Step 2: Complete this form
- Step 3: If you completed your degree at a University other than UTS, attach a certified copy of your academic transcript
- Step 4: Attach a personal statement that does not exceed 800 words that:
 - a) reflects on your tertiary academic achievements to date, and gives any information that would be relevant to the evaluation of your academic record.
 - b) describes any other evidence of relevant knowledge or research skills, such as the completion of other courses, previous work experience, or publications.
 - c) provides evidence of personal characteristics, such as high motivation, reliability and the ability to set goals and keep to deadlines, that would be relevant to the successful completion of the honours program.
 - d) provides any additional information that you think is relevant to your application.
- Step 5: Attach a resume that does not exceed 1000 words that summarises your academic and employment history
- Step 6: Arrange for one academic referee to complete the Referee Form (attached to this form). It is your responsibility to ensure that this reference is submitted by the due date. The Referee Form is to be returned by your referee direct to the Research Administrator (see submission instructions).
